MARTIN SOLD OUT

VETERAN GROCERYMAN SELLS TO ENDICOTT MAX.

Mr. Martin Has No Intention of Leaving Pendleton, But Will Visit Germany With His Family and Expects to Go Into Business of Some Kind Here—Is Succeeded by an Experienced Business Man.

After 16 years in the grocery business in Pendleton, Rudolph Martin has sold out and will retire from this business permanently. On Saturday evening, E. T. Wade & Son sold the Martin grocery to August Fuhrman of Endicott, Wash., who took immediate possession and is now conducting the business.

Mr. Martin began on a very small scale and has built up one of the leading grocery trades in the county. He is not determined on his plans for the future, but will not leave Pendleton. He owns the new Martin buildings on the corner of Webb and Cottonwood, and will perhaps engage in other business after taking a rest and visiting his old home in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Fuhrman have had considerable experience in the grocery business and will conduct the business on the same progressive lines pursued by Mr. Martin in the past.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin will remain in the store for two weeks while Mr. Fuhrman is becoming acquainted with the trade.

THE HARTMANS HOME.

Had a Long, Varied and Most Enjoyable Journey.

Judge and Mrs. George A. Hartman and daughter, Miss Jessie Hartman, arrived home yesterday from a month at St. Louis and other points in the East. During their trip the Hartmans visited at the fair and made a trip to Chicago, Detroit, Buffalo and New York City.

"The political situation is difficult to forecast," said the judge this morning. It is very quiet, even in New York City. The only thing I noticed in the metropolis was the fact that Parker banners dominated those of Roosevelt about five to one. But that is not to be wondered at when one considers that New York City has always been a democratic stronghold.

"During our trip we managed to get outside of the United States for a brief spell. That was while we were en route from Detroit to Buffalo on the New York Central. I didn't see very much of Canadian soil, but I had enough to make me satisfied with this vast country of our own. I managed to keep pretty busy looking at United States scenes."

Judge Hartman came home over the Northern Pacific and arrived in Pendleton on the O. R. & N. from Walla Walla.

FOOTBALL TOMORROW.

Whitman and Pendleton on West Alta Tomorrow.

Whitman College second and Pendleton high school football teams will meet on the Alta street grounds tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The second Whitman has proved almost the equal of the first team of the missionaries and a close game is anticipated.

The first Whitman and the Walla Walla high school played a game resulting in 5 to 4 in favor of the college. Pendleton played a tie game with the high school.

The Pendleton eleven is in even better condition than when it went against the Walla Wallans. The lineup of the local team follows: Ingie, center; Reeves and Storey, guards; Scott and Means, tackles; Leasure and Pierce, ends; Turner, quarter back; Strand, left half; Milne, right half; Cronin, full back; Goodman, Penland, Hawley and Baker, substitutes.

SUIT AGAINST WELLS.

Civil action was instituted in the state circuit court this morning by H. H. Wesel, a Pendleton merchant against Frank Wells, the missing Ukiah stockman, to collect $133.15. Sheriff T. D. Taylor has gone to Ukiah with a notice of attachment on Wells' property. It is now believed by many that Wells, who disappeared a month ago, did so to escape payment of bills outstanding against him.

In his complaint Wesel claims that he sold the defendant a bill of goods amounting to $55.15. He also presents an assigned claim of the First National Bank, amounting to $75. Carter & Raley represent Wesel.

JESSE FALLING HOME.

Is Much Improved and Glad to Have Returned.

Jesse Falling, a prominent resident of Pendleton, and pioneer of Umatilla county, who was seriously injured four months ago in a runaway accident, returned home Saturday from Portland, where he has been receiving medical treatment. Mr. Falling sustained a fracture of the left thigh bone. He has been in the North Pacific Sanitarium.

"I am much improved," said Mr. Falling, "and it is merely a question of time until I am perfectly recovered. It seems good to be back home once more."

Mr. Falling is still confined to a wheel chair, but his strength is good. Owing to his age, the bone has been slow in healing.

Voting Place Moved.

The voting place for North Pendleton precinct has been changed from the sample room in the Hotel Pendleton to one of the La Dow buildings in Court street.

SACAJAWEA MONUMENT.

Mrs. Evans of Oswego, Outlines Plans of Northwest Women to Honor Indian Heroine.

Having been invited by Mrs. F. F. Spaulding to meet her guests, Mrs. Evans of Oswego, and Mrs. C. H. Wade of Pendleton, the members of the Sorosis and teachers of our public schools, to the number of about 30, spent last evening at her home on the corner of Fourth and Court streets, says The Dalles Chronicle.

After a short time had been passed in greetings, Mrs. Evans, who is secretary of the Sacajawea Club, gave a most interesting talk on the work of the club and the erection of a monument to her memory on the Lewis and Clark grounds. "This is not a new idea," said Mrs. Evans, "but was suggested by Col. Wheeler and others some time previous to the movement by the women of the Northwest. It is not intended to be a club affair, but one in which all women are asked to join."

Beginning with the birthplace of the pioneer Indian woman who guided Lewis and Clark on their perilous trip, she recited instances in her life, and added that so far as known she died near St. Louis of tuberculosis. As regards the monument, it will cost about $7000, and $700 of the sum has been raised.

Women all over the Northwest are taking a deep interest and while it was not her intent in coming here to work in its behalf, at the request of the Sorosis she spoke on that occasion.

TO GRIND CANADIAN WHEAT.

Minneapolis Company to Bond a Mill.

A dispatch from Minneapolis says that the Pillsbury-Washburn Flour mills has made application to the treasury department to bond their Fallsdale mill and the Minneapolis Union elevator, in order to grind Canadian wheat.

The mill has a capacity of 4000 barrels daily. The action necessitates giving a $50,000 bond to the government, the employment of a government officer to supervise the mill and also a government officer at the grain elevator. The duty of 25 cents per bushel will be paid on the Canadian wheat used and a rebate of 99 per cent of this duty will be made as soon as the flour from this wheat is exported.

Another recent instance of the scarcity of high grade wheat is the fact confirmed by Mr. Bach, the New York agent of the Ballard & Ballard Flouring Mill Company, of Louisville, Ky., that his mill had bought 1,000,000 of Oregon wheat on the Pacific coast to bring east in order to keep running. Mr. Bach says country mills all through the western wheat states are shutting down for want of native wheat.

Will Speak Tonight.

J. P. Winters will speak at the court house this evening on the subject of prohibition from the saloonman's standpoint. Mr. Winters, during the past week has been stumping the county in the interests of the anti-prohibitionists. He spoke at the republican rally at Heppner Saturday evening and will return home this afternoon.

Mrs. Roberts in the City.

Mrs. A. A. Roberts, who for the past two months has been in Portland undergoing medical treatment, arrived in Pendleton yesterday. Mr. Roberts, who is receiver of the La Grande land office, will return home this evening. Mrs. Roberts will remain in this city with relatives.

In Police Court.

John Doe, for fighting this morning forfeited bail in the sum of $10 in the recorder's court. Frank Diamond, for peddling jewelry without a license, was sentenced to three days in jail.

Collingswood Obliterated.

Sydney, N. Z., Nov. 7.—The town of Collingswood, N. Z., has been practically obliterated by fire. Only three houses remain.

A Baby's Birth

is very much like the blossoming of a flower. Its beauty and perfection depends entirely upon the care bestowed upon its parent. Expectant mothers should have the tenderest care. They should be spared all worry and anxiety. They should eat plenty of good nourishing food and take gentle exercises. This will go a long way toward preserving their health and their beauty as well as that of the little one to come. But to be absolutely sure of a short and painless labor they should use regularly during the months of gestation. This is a simple liniment, which is to be applied externally. It gives strength and vigor to the muscles and prevents all of the discomforts of pregnancy, which women used to think were absolutely necessary. When Mother's Friend is used there is no danger whatever.

Mother's Friend
